

Call for Community- Centered Resilience Success Stories

Editors:

NAAHDRI Member Relations Committee and NAAHDRI Volunteers

Support:

Institute for Catastrophic Loss Reduction

Examples:

- <https://www.naahdri.org/wp-content/uploads/2024/01/NAAHDRI-Resilience-Stories.pdf>

Guidelines for Authors

1. Success stories. Summary of what worked and how the community accomplished it.
2. Length. 1,000 words
3. Key Elements.
 - Background: what do we know?
 - Trigger: why did this happen?
 - Approach: what is it that you/others did?
 - Outcome: how did it turn out?
 - Voice: response/feedback by a stakeholder (e.g., mayor)
 - So what? recommendations to other communities of place and practice (e.g. people working on other hazards)
4. Figures. Include photos, maps, and or other graphics to illustrate local conditions.
5. Format. Digital (Word document)
6. References. Keep to a minimum. Use numbered footnotes.
7. Title and Abstract Submission:
Use this FORM to submit your idea.
8. Response from editors:
Within 4 weeks after submission
9. Draft Submission:
Within 4 weeks after editor email, send draft to
Melanie Gall (melanie.gall@asu.edu),
subject line: NAAHDRI Resilience Stories
10. Final Submission:
Within 4 weeks after reviewer responses send to
Melanie Gall (melanie.gall@asu.edu),
Subject line: NAAHDRI Mitigation Stories